

IRON AGE HUMAN BONE

Iron Age contexts	0506	Skull fragment: adult or sub adult
	0609	Tibia: foetal or newborn
	1538	Partial foetal skeleton: most of skull including right mandible two vertebral fragments both scapulae both humeri (max. L. = 67mm) both ulnae and radii left tibia (max. L. = 68mm) one metacarpal Age estimated as 7 - 8 months, based on lengths of humeri and tibia using chart of R. Powers (unpublished, British Museum (Natural History)).
'Roman' contexts	0443	Mandible, with alveolus for posterior permanent molar.
	0444	Tibia: foetal or newborn.
'Probable Roman' context	0432	Skull fragment: adult or sub adult